

MOLAYA KGOSI
Women Leadership & Mentorship Program

Molaya Kgosi Mentorship Roundtable

Our Second mentor is Chevening scholarship alumni (2009/10); Batsho Elite Nthoi. He is a banking and finance lawyer with Standard Chartered Bank. He has worked in legal private practice, as journalist and a youth activist. Batsho has studied with University of Botswana and King's College, University of London for his undergraduate and postgraduate respectively.

Outside legal practice, Batsho contributes to civil society currently serving as a Vice Chair in Botswana Medical AID Society (BOMAID) board. He has served as the Vice Chairperson in the Board of Media Institute of Southern Africa (MISA Botswana (2008-2010)), Coordinator of the Commonwealth Africa Region Youth Caucus (2005-2007), Commonwealth Youth representative for Botswana (2008-2010), Founding member of the Girl – Boy Education Movement (GEBM – UNICEF, 2001) and led the Botswana National Youth Council (BNYC) as Chairperson in 2004-2006. He was ex-officio board member (Immediate Past Chair) of BNYC from 2006-2009.

Batsho likes adventure and testing his character. He rides motorbikes, bungee jumping and recently did 90 kms midnight walk in the Makgadikgadi pans. He reads widely and studies French.

Like our page and send a message if you would like to be part of her roundtable (open for both men and women)! <https://www.facebook.com/pages/Molaya-Kgosi/178569888885677>